TO THE SUB-EDITORS.

May the Editor kindly remind the Sub-Editors that since their appointment she has looked to them to collect matter under the various headings arranged, and that some have sent no communication at all for the last two issues.

The Editor is perfectly willing to collect matter whenever and wherever possible; so if nothing is forthcoming from the Sub-Editors, she would be glad if they would kindly notify her of the fact in time that the omission may be supplied when possible from other quarters.
